Re: Myint Kyaw a/k/a Jeffrey Wu
Case No. 820-72407-A736

Dear Judge Grossman:

This firm is counsel to the Debtor in the above-referenced Chapter 11 case.

On Your Honor's calendar for today was the application for the retention of DLA Piper as the Debtor's special tax counsel. I was advised by Diana Erbsen of DLA Piper that she has a conference scheduled with the appeals unit of the Internal Revenue Service for next week and she is uncomfortable attending that conference as her firm has not been retained as the Debtor's special counsel.

We had submitted the proposed order, application and affidavit for the retention of DLA Piper and it was put on hold at the time that Your Honor appointed Mr. Rosenfeld as the Hearing Examiner.

The Debtor requests that Your Honor enter the order for the retention of DLA Piper so that firm can represent the interests of the Debtor at the appeals conference, which involves a large Internal Revenue Service claim of approximately $2,400,000.00.

In the event Your Honor has any questions concerning this request for the entry of the order, kindly have Chambers contact me.

Respectfully yours,

Marc A. Pergament
